1. The family of ONG Ching Liang (WANG Chen-han),<sup>1</sup> Djalan Timur 9, Medan, consists of the following members:

ONG Ching Liang

Mrs. ONG Ching Liang

Nurse at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Medan.

Miss Molly ONG

ONG Lang Hiang (WANG Lan-hsiang - 王蘭香)

Now in China studying at St. John's University, Shanghai.

Miss Alice ONG

ONG Lan Yin (WANG Lan-ying - 王蘭櫻)

Teacher at the Methodist English School (MES), Medan. During August 1951 Miss ONG wanted to resign to go to China, but was persuaded by the MES to stay on as a teacher. However, she plans to resign at the end of the present school term and leave for China during January or February 1952.

Miss Baby ONG

ONG Lan Hua (WANG Lan-hua - 王蘭花)

Student at Hwa Ying Middle School, Medan.

ONG Chang Siew (WANG Ch'eng-shou - 王振壽)

2. Three Chinese youths from Java, all of whom attend the Methodist English School, live in the ONG home as boarders:

Benny TJIO (TJIO Wie Eng)

Age 18. The ringleader of a suspected Communist cell in the MES. TJIO brings such Communist publications as Peoples China to his classes and surreptitiously circulates them among his fellow students. ONG Chang Siew and he frequently go at night to the Hwa Chiao Middle School.

Eddy KHOUW (KHOUW Wan Beng)

Not known to be pro-Communist. During October 1951 KHOUW moved out of the ONG house, because he did not like the constant political discussions carried on between ONG Chang Siew and TJIO.

KWEE Wie Beng

3. In an effort to control the suspected Communist cell led by TJIO, the authorities of the Methodist English School have forbidden students to engage in unauthorized extra-curricular political activity or discussion of politics within the school.
